Fall 2004

Hello NASDN members. Sorry it has taken me so long to get this out to you but for some reason my computer has not been getting any info from NASDN so, I'm sorry to say I thought there was nothing to report. Glad to say we are up and running again and have a few things to let you know about.

NASDN 2005 Seminar

The fall seminar will be held at Camp Kataki in South Bend, Nebraska. Date is September 9-14. More to follow as it gets closer. Keep an eye on the web site for application and cost.

NASDN 2005 Mini Seminar and Board Meeting

There is going to be a mini seminar and board meeting in March 2005 at Almah Farm in St Clair, Missouri. The dates are March 18, - 20. Cost is $75.00 and anyone wishing to attempt evaluations it is $35.00 per dog per evaluation.

Anyone wishing to bring a second dog may do so but only one dog per each problem. Motels are the Super-8 (636-629-8080) and the Budget Lodging (636-629-1000) both are in St. Clair and have rooms in the range of $60.00.

Everyone is responsible for arranging their motel rooms and meals. Anyone wishing to attend, send your registration to:

Dave Blaylock
1593 Fredrickstrasser Dr.
Fayetteville, Ohio 45118
(dbsosard@hotmail.com)

Almah Farm is about 3 miles Northwest of St. Clair on a paved road about 10 minutes from a restaurant and fast food places. It consists of more than 400 acres of rolling hills pastures and forests bordered on one side by the Bourbeuse River. Evaluations being offered are Trailing, Air scenting, and Land Cadaver. Should you have any more questions about the seminar or evaluations contact Leisa Hochstetler (ascok9sar@adelphia.net) or Tom Osterkamp, for local arrangements at (tomeo@yhti.net).

NASDN DUES

Remember to send in your Dues for 2005. The cost is $35.00 for the year. All dues should be paid by January 1st 2005 to keep your member status. Dues should be sent to:
